

The Educational Technology Council of the Alberta Teacher's Association (ETCATA), and the Faculty of Education, University of Alberta are pleased to present:

Google Workshop for Educators

When: Friday, May 7, 2010

Where: Room B-127 Education North
Faculty of Education, University of Alberta, Edmonton

Time: 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Cost: $250.00 USD (US Dollars)

Online Registration Link: <http://www.cue.org/edmonton>

Registration Deadline: May 3, 2010

Limited Capacity- Please Register Early.

Note: A waiting list will be established for a potential second Google Workshop for Educators once the May 7, 2010 workshop capacity has been reached.

Who should attend: District technology integration leaders and consultants, teacher leaders and technology coaches, Faculty of Education technology leaders and professional development personnel

The Google Workshop for Educators (GWE) introduces participants to innovative ways Google tools are being used in education. This full day of fast-paced presentations and hands-on activities includes experience with advanced search techniques, collaborative web-based applications, and inspirational instructional strategies. The content will focus on the use of Google Search, Google Docs, Google Maps (with Google Earth), Google Sites, and Google Groups. The sessions will take a train-the-trainer approach and will include advanced tips and tricks as well as training tips.

Participants who complete the event are given access to the Google Workshops for Educators Network (GWEN), an online community focused on supporting educators as they learn more about the power of Google to drive student learning.

Wow! I learned more today than I have in the last year of professional development!

-Anonymous, Las Vegas, NV

This is the most valuable workshop I have attended in the last 5 years.

-Tina, Minneapolis, MN

About the Presenters: The Google Workshop for Educators is a professional development event provided by Computer Using Educators (CUE) who are also the producers of the Google Teacher Academy. The sessions are delivered by Google Certified Teachers who have personal experience implementing Google tools into their K-12 classrooms.